Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries Announce Signing of Definitive Agreement and Company Split for Integration of Cement Businesses

Mitsubishi Materials Corporation (“Mitsubishi Materials”) and Ube Industries, Ltd. (“Ube Industries”) today announced the signing of a definitive agreement between both companies (the “Definitive Agreement”) for the integration of their respective cement businesses and related businesses (the “Integration”), scheduled to be implemented around April 2022. The respective Board of Directors of Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries made formal resolutions at their meetings today to implement the Integration. The signing of the Definitive Agreement is pursuant to the announcement on February 12, 2020 by Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries that they had signed a letter of intent to engage in specific discussions and study of the Integration. The details of the Definitive Agreement and company split are as follows.

1. Purpose of the Integration

In 1998, Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries established Ube-Mitsubishi Cement Corporation (“Ube-Mitsubishi Cement”) as an equally-owned joint venture. Under the joint venture, the companies integrated their respective non-consolidated cement sales and logistics functions, realizing a certain degree of benefit including reductions in logistics costs as well as head office and branch office expenses.

While the business situations surrounding the cement business in Japan are currently undergoing significant changes, including slowing demand and fluctuating energy prices dramatically, it is necessary for Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries to establish a new framework for their cement businesses that develops the existing relationship, in order to realize the future growth of their cement businesses.

In light of these circumstances, Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries decided to integrate the respective cement businesses and related businesses of their corporate groups as an optimal strategic option to combine all of the advantages of the respective cement businesses and related businesses of both companies such as Mitsubishi Materials' (1) Kyushu Plant, which boasts the largest domestic production capacity; (2) Higashitani Mine, which has abundant limestone resources; (3) highly competitive Cement and ready-mixed concrete business in the United States; and Ube Industries' (1) infrastructure facilities in the Ube area, including large port facilities and coal centers; (2) Nationwide ready-mixed concrete manufacturing and sales network; and (3) Ube Materials Industries, Ltd.'s inorganic materials business.

In Japan, the integrated business will pursue strategies to enhance business efficiencies throughout the value chain, including by optimizing the framework for production and rebuilding the sales and logistics organizations for downstream businesses such as ready-mix concrete. Furthermore, the integrated business will seek to maximize synergies in order to further strengthen the business platform for the cement business in Japan to enhance its position as a company that contributes to the development of social infrastructure and a recycling-oriented society. The management resources generated from the cement business in Japan will be directed toward concentrated investment in businesses that are anticipated to generate future growth in and outside of Japan. This includes overseas cement and ready-mix concrete business and high-performance inorganic materials business based on high-quality limestone. Through these efforts, Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries will strive to achieve sustainable growth by building optimal business management systems for both companies.

2. Summary of the Integration

(1) Scope and Method of the Integration

The scope of the Integration encompasses the cement and ready-mixed concrete businesses, limestone resources businesses, energy and environmental-related businesses, construction material businesses, and other related businesses (the “Relevant Businesses”) of Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries, both in and outside of Japan (the Relevant Businesses of Mitsubishi Materials, the “Mitsubishi Materials Relevant Businesses”; the Relevant Businesses of Ube Industries, the “Ube Industries Relevant Businesses”).

Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries plan to implement the Integration by establishing an equally-owned joint venture (the “New Company”) that will assume the respective relevant businesses (including shares of subsidiaries engaged in the relevant businesses) by a company split method (the company split by Mitsubishi Materials, the “Mitsubishi Materials Absorption-Type Company Split”; the company split by Ube Industries, the “Ube Industries Absorption-Type Company Split”; the Mitsubishi Materials Absorption-Type Company Split and the Ube Industries Absorption-Type Company Split, together, the “Joint Absorption-Type Company Split”). Additionally, the New Company will implement an absorption-type merger of Ube-Mitsubishi Cement, with Ube-Mitsubishi Cement as the absorbed company.

Following the Integration, Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries will each own a 50% stake in the New Company.

*Includes shares of subsidiaries that engage in the Relevant Businesses

(2) Schedule of the Integration

Note: Implementation of the Integration is subject to completing the necessary filings for the Integration with relevant agencies in and outside of Japan including the Japan Fair Trade Commission, and acquiring approvals (the “Approvals and Other Related Procedures”). Furthermore, it is subject to approval at the general shareholders' meetings of both companies (except where the integration clearly satisfies the requirements for a simplified absorption-type company split as stipulated in Article 784, Paragraph 2 of the Companies Act of Japan), and subject to circumstances or events not arising that critically and adversely impact the assets, debts, financial position, business results, cash flows or future revenue plans of the relevant businesses of both companies.

The Integration schedule is provisional at this time and subject to change based on discussions between the companies, because of the Approvals and Other Related Procedures or other reasons having to do with fulfilling necessary procedures.

(3) Method of the Integration

The Integration will take the form of an absorption-type joint venture involving (1) an absorption-type company split with Mitsubishi Materials as the splitting company and the New Company as the successor company, (2) an absorption-type company split with Ube Industries as the splitting company and the New Company as the successor company, and (3) a absorption-type company merger in which the New Company (being the wholly-owning parent company of Ube-Mitsubishi Cement through the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split) will be the surviving company and Ube-Mitsubishi Cement (being the wholly-owned subsidiary of the New Company) will be the absorbed company.

(4) Details of Allocations for the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split

At the time of the Mitsubishi Materials Absorption-Type Company Split, the New Company will newly issue 450 shares and entirely allocate these shares to Mitsubishi Materials. Additionally, at the time of the Ube Industries Absorption-Type Company Split, the New Company will newly issue 450 shares equaling the shares allocated to Mitsubishi Materials and entirely allocate the shares to Ube Industries. As a result, the New Company will have issued 900 shares at the time of the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split. If the shares that the New Company issues and allocates to Mitsubishi Materials at the time of the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split are taken as one and the ratio of shares issued by the New Company to Ube Industries is 1:1 to that of Mitsubishi Materials (the “Agreed Share Allocation Ratio”), Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries will each continue to own 50% of the shares in the New Company.

(5) Handling of Stock Acquisition Rights and Bonds with Stock Acquisition Rights as a Result of the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split

Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries have not issued any stock acquisition rights or bonds with stock acquisition rights.

(6) Change in Capital Due to the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split

The capital amount of Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries will remain unchanged as a result of the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split.

(7) Rights and Obligations Assumed by the Successor Company

As a result of the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split, the New Company will assume the rights and obligations relating to the Relevant Businesses operated by Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries, on the date that the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split takes effect and with the exception of rights and obligations that are stipulated in the absorption-type company split agreement as not being assumed.

The assumption of obligations by the New Company as a result of the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split will be by an assumption of obligation releasing an old obligor.

(8) Expected Fulfillment of Obligations

Expected fulfillment of the obligations of Mitsubishi Materials, Ube Industries, and the New Company will not be an issue because (1) the amount of assets following the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split is expected to exceed the amount of debts and (2) circumstances that would hinder the fulfillment of obligations borne following the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split are not currently expected to arise.

3. Basis of the Allocations for the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split

(1) Basis of and Reasons for the Allocations

In determining the allotment of common stock of the New Company to be received by Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries in the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split, based on confirmation and careful review of the forecasts for the respective Relevant Businesses provided by each party, Mitsubishi Materials appointed Merrill Lynch Japan Securities Co., Ltd (“MLJS”) as a financial advisor independent from Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries and requested MLJS to perform financial analyses for the allotment related to the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split and Ube Industries appointed Goldman Sachs Japan Co., Ltd. (“Goldman Sachs”) as a financial advisor independent from Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries and requested Goldman Sachs to perform financial analyses that indicated a range of illustrative equity values for the Ube Industries Relevant Businesses and the New Company. After numerous careful negotiations and discussions between each party, comprehensively considering such confirmation and careful review of the forecasts for the respective Relevant Businesses provided by each party, the financial analyses by each financial advisor, the strategic rationale and expected synergies from the Integration, and other factors of each party respectively, including the financial and business situation, the status of assets, and future prospects, Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries reached agreement on the allotment of common stock of the JV today as described under “2. Summary of the Integration—4) Details of Allocations for the Joint-Absorption-Type Company Split” above. At the time of adopting the resolutions in favor of the Integration at the respective meetings of each party’s Board of Directors, each of Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries received a financial analysis report (santei-sho) as of September 29, 2020 from its respective financial advisor as described under “—3) Matters relating to the Financial Analyses” below.

Adjusted Net Debt/(Cash) <sup>2</sup>	71.6 billion yen	7.6 billion yen

- Adjusted Enterprise Value consists of (i) 100% of the enterprise value of the business of each party on a non-consolidated basis, (ii) the amount obtained by multiplying 100% of the enterprise value of the major consolidated subsidiaries of each party contributed to the New Company by the ownership percentage of each party in them, (iii) the amount obtained by multiplying 100% of the equity value of the associated companies of each party contributed to the New Company, excluding Ube-Mitsubishi Cement, by the ownership percentage of each party in them, and (iv) other adjustments excluding Adjusted Net Debt/(Cash).

(3) Matters relating to the Financial Analyses

(i) Name of financial advisors and relationship to both companies

At the time of deciding the Agreed Share Allocation Ratio for shares in the New Company in relation to the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split, Mitsubishi Materials selected MLJS as its financial advisor, being that MLJS is a third party appraiser who is independent of Mitsubishi Materials and Ube Industries. Mitsubishi Materials requested a financial analysis of the share allocation ratio for the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split. The Board of Directors of Mitsubishi Materials received the MLJS valuation report dated September 29, 2020, under the preconditions and other fixed conditions stated in the following Note. MLJS is not an affiliated party of Mitsubishi Materials or Ube Industries, and thus has no material interests that need be stated in relation to the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split.

In order to ensure the fairness and appropriateness to Ube Industries of the allotment of common stock of the New Company to be received by Ube Industries in the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split, Ube Industries appointed Goldman Sachs as a financial advisor independent from Ube Industries and Mitsubishi Materials, requested the financial analyses of a range of illustrative equity values for the Ube Industries Relevant Businesses and the New Company, and received the Goldman Sachs Report (as defined below) dated September 29, 2020. Goldman Sachs does not constitute a related party of Ube Industries and Mitsubishi Materials, nor does it have any material interests in the Joint Absorption-Type Company Split.

Note: The following is additional information on the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the work undertaken in connection with preparing the Goldman Sachs Report, the Goldman Sachs Fairness Opinion and the financial analyses supporting such Goldman Sachs Fairness Opinion (such financial analyses, together with the Goldman Sachs Fairness Opinion, the “Goldman Sachs Fairness Materials”).

Goldman Sachs and its affiliates (collectively, “Goldman Sachs Group”) are engaged in advisory, underwriting and financing, principal investing, sales and trading, research, investment management and other financial and non-financial activities and services for various persons and entities. Goldman Sachs Group and its employees, and funds or other entities they manage or in which they invest or have other economic interests or with which they co-invest, may at any time purchase, sell, hold or vote long or short positions and investments in securities, derivatives, loans, commodities, currencies, credit default swaps and other financial instruments of Ube Industries, Mitsubishi Materials, any of their respective affiliates and third parties, including the New Company or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the Integration. Goldman Sachs has acted as financial advisor to Ube Industries in connection with, and has participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the Integration. Goldman Sachs expects to receive fees for its services in connection with the Integration, the principal portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Integration, and Ube Industries has agreed to reimburse certain of Goldman Sachs’ expenses arising, and indemnify it against certain liabilities that may arise, out of its engagement. Goldman Sachs Group may also in the future provide financial advisory and/or underwriting services to Ube Industries, Mitsubishi Materials, the New Company and their respective affiliates for which Goldman Sachs’ Investment Banking Division of Goldman Sachs Group may receive compensation.

In connection with preparing the Goldman Sachs Report and the Goldman Sachs Fairness Opinion, Goldman Sachs has reviewed, among other things, the Definitive Agreement; annual reports to stockholders and Annual Securities Reports (Yuka Shoken Houkoku-Sho) of Ube Industries for the five fiscal years ended March 31, 2020; certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports (Shihanki Houkoku-Sho) of Ube Industries; certain other communications from Ube Industries to its stockholders; certain publicly available research analyst reports for Ube Industries; the unaudited financial statements of the Ube Industries Relevant Businesses for the three fiscal years ended March 31, 2020; the Ube Industries Forecasts, including the Synergies; annual reports to stockholders and Annual Securities Reports (Yuka Shoken Houkoku-Sho) of Mitsubishi Materials for the five fiscal years ended March 31, 2020; certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports (Shihanki Houkoku-Sho) of Mitsubishi Materials; certain other communications from Mitsubishi Materials to its stockholders; certain publicly available research analyst reports for Mitsubishi Materials; the unaudited financial statements of the Mitsubishi Materials Relevant Businesses for the three fiscal years ended March 31, 2020; and certain estimates as to the amount of certain direct or indirect assets and/or liabilities of Ube Industries to be assumed by the New Company, relating to Ube Industries’ cement and related businesses, as adjusted (the “Ube Industries Adjustments”) and certain estimates as to the amount of certain direct or indirect assets and/or liabilities of Mitsubishi Materials to be assumed by the New Company, relating to Mitsubishi Materials’ cement and related businesses, as adjusted (the “Mitsubishi Materials Adjustments”), in each case, as prepared by the management of Ube Industries and approved for Goldman Sachs’ use by Ube Industries (the “Ube Industries Estimates”). Goldman Sachs also held discussions with members of the senior management of Ube Industries regarding their assessment of the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the Integration and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of the Ube Industries Relevant Businesses and of the New Company; compared certain financial information for the New Company and the Ube Industries Relevant Businesses with similar financial and stock market information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as Goldman Sachs deemed appropriate.

For purposes of performing its financial analyses and preparing the Goldman Sachs Report and the Goldman Sachs Fairness Materials, Goldman Sachs, with Ube Industries’ consent, relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information provided to, discussed with or reviewed by, Goldman Sachs, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification thereof. In that regard, Goldman Sachs assumed with Ube Industries' consent that the Ube Industries Forecasts, including the Synergies, and the Ube Industries Estimates were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Ube Industries. Goldman Sachs did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or other off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of Ube Industries or any of its subsidiaries, the Ube Industries Relevant Businesses, the Mitsubishi Materials Relevant Businesses or the New Company, and Goldman Sachs was not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. Goldman Sachs assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Integration will be obtained without any adverse effect on Ube Industries, Mitsubishi Materials, the Ube Industries Relevant Businesses, the Mitsubishi Materials Relevant Businesses or the New Company or on the expected benefits of the Integration in any way meaningful to Goldman Sachs' analysis. Goldman Sachs has also assumed that the Integration will be consummated on the terms set forth in the Definitive Agreement, without the waiver or modification of any term or condition the effect of which would be in any way meaningful to Goldman Sachs' analysis.

The Goldman Sachs Report and the Goldman Sachs Fairness Materials do not address the underlying business decision of Ube Industries to engage in the Integration, or the relative merits of the Integration as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to Ube Industries; nor do they address any legal, regulatory, tax or accounting matters. Goldman Sachs does not express any opinion as to the prices at which shares of Ube Industries or Mitsubishi Materials will trade at any time, as to the potential effects of volatility in the credit, financial and stock markets on Ube Industries, the New Company, the Ube Industries Relevant Businesses, Mitsubishi Materials, the Mitsubishi Materials Relevant Businesses or the Integration, or as to the impact of the Integration on the solvency or viability of Ube Industries, the New Company, the Ube Industries Relevant Businesses, Mitsubishi Materials or the Mitsubishi Materials Relevant Businesses or the ability of Ube Industries, the New Company, the Ube Industries Relevant Businesses, Mitsubishi Materials or the Mitsubishi Materials Relevant Businesses to pay their respective obligations when they come due. The Goldman Sachs Fairness Materials were necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Goldman Sachs as of, the date hereof and Goldman Sachs assumes no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming the Goldman Sachs Fairness Opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date hereof. The Goldman Sachs Fairness Opinion was approved by a fairness committee of Goldman Sachs. The Goldman Sachs Report and the Goldman Sachs Fairness Materials are not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the Goldman Sachs Report, the Goldman Sachs Fairness Materials or the summary set forth above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying the Goldman Sachs Report and the Goldman Sachs Fairness Materials. Goldman Sachs did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or any analysis it performed.
